Dear Second Graders!

I hope you enjoy reading as much as I do because in second grade we LOVE TO READ all kinds of books! The summer is a perfect time to make a bowl of popcorn, pour a glass of lemonade and read a favorite book in the shade!

In second grade, we start the year by listening to a great dragon story titled: My Father's Dragon. During the summer, do you think you could read 1 or 2 picture books with a dragon character? Here are some books you may want to choose from or maybe you can find one of your own.

The Popcorn Dragon

Dragons Love Taco's

A Friend for Dragon

Dragon's Fat Cat

In Second Grade, we also start reading our first chapter books. (Some of you many already have started reading chapter books!) Over the summer, I want you to read (or have Mom and Dad read to you) Magic Tree House #37 Dragon of the Red Dawn by Mary Pope Osborne.

Do you like animals, insects, famous heroes or outer space? I hope you do because I also want you to choose one nonfiction book of your choice and share some interesting facts with us on the first day of school.

Remember, the best way to become a better reader is to READ, READ and READ, so keep reading all summer long!
